

ABWE Canada

Statement of Faith

The ABWE Canada Statement of Faith is based on the supreme authority and explicit teaching of the Bible which cannot be altered by men. There is no more sure or unchangeable foundation than the Word of God, our final standard for all faith and practice.

The word doctrine simply means “teaching” and as used historically refers to the body of teaching in the Bible regarding any given area of the Christian faith. Thus, the ABWE Canada Statement of Faith is an expression of what we believe the Bible teaches about the following important topics.

ABWE Canada’s Statement of Faith was formulated by the ABWE Canada Board of Directors and approved by the ABWE Canada Corporation. It must be affirmed by every ABWE Canada administrator, missionary, employee, and corporate member. This statement serves as the standard of belief for churches, missionaries, and staff members who wish to join with ABWE Canada.

This Statement of Faith may be changed at any time by two-thirds majority vote of the members of the ABWE Canada Corporation.

Concerning the Scriptures

We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments, as originally written were God-breathed, both verbally and in every part. We believe God communicated through Spirit-controlled men so that the Scriptures are without error, authoritative, and complete. We believe the Bible is the supreme revelation of God’s will for mankind and constitutes the only infallible guide for faith and life.

Psalm 119:128; Matthew 5:18; 2 Peter 1:19-21; John 17:17; Revelation 22:18, 19; John 10:34, 35; 2 Timothy 3:16; Hebrews 4:12

Concerning the True God

We believe in the one eternal God, the Creator of all things; that in the unity of the Godhead there are three Persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, identical in essence and equal in power and glory.

Genesis 1:1; Isaiah 46:9; 1 Corinthians 8:6; Exodus 20:2, 3; Matthew 3:16, 17; Deuteronomy 4:35, 6:4; John 1:1-3; Hebrews 1:8

Concerning God the Father

We believe that God the Father is holy and loving. Unlimited in time, space, knowledge, and power, the Father has planned for His glory all that comes to pass and purposed from eternity to redeem a people for Himself. In His sovereignty, He is neither author nor approver of sin, nor does He negate the accountability of moral, intelligent creatures. Although distinct from His creation, He is imminently at work in it, intervening as He chooses.

Psalm 103:19; Ephesians 1:4; James 1:13; Habakkuk 1:12, 13; John 8:38, 47; 1 Peter 1:17; Psalm 139:1-16; 1 Corinthians 8:6; John 5:17

Concerning the Lord Jesus Christ

We believe that the Lord Jesus Christ is the eternal Son of God. Conceived by the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary, He became “God manifest in the flesh.” As fully God and fully man, He lived an absolutely sinless life. He voluntarily died to make a full and vicarious atonement for our sins. He arose from the dead on the third day and ascended bodily into heaven.

Isaiah 7:14; 1 Peter 2:22; 3:18; 2 Corinthians 5:21; Matthew 1:18-25; 28:6; John 1:1

Concerning the Holy Spirit

We believe that the Holy Spirit is the promised Comforter sent by the Father and the Son, possessing full personality and deity. He convicts the world of sin, righteousness, and judgment. He is the agent of the new birth, at which time He baptizes believers into the body of Christ, and His work among believers is that He seals, indwells, fills, guides, and teaches. The sign gifts of prophecy, speaking in tongues, interpretation of tongues, miracles and healing, were powerful indicators in New Testament times whereby the authenticity of the gospel was established on Earth, but these gifts are not normative for today. Needless to say, apart from these gifts, God can do the miraculous according to His sovereign purposes. That is why we pray according to His will.

John 7:39; 14:16-17, 26; 16:7-11; 1 Corinthians 12:8-13, 28-31; 13:8-12; Hebrews 2:1-4, 9:14; Acts 1:4, 5; Revelation 22:18-19; Romans 12:3-8; Ephesians 1:13-14, 4:7-11

Concerning Mankind

We believe the Scriptures teach that men and women are created in God's image. Adam was created by a direct act of God as described in Genesis 1 and not from any previously existing form of life. By voluntary transgression he fell from his state of innocence, in consequence of which all mankind are now sinners by nature and by choice, and therefore under just condemnation to everlasting, conscious punishment, separated from God.

Genesis 1:27; Romans 3:23, 5:12-19; Isaiah 53:6; 2 Thessalonians 1:7-9

Concerning Marriage and Sexuality

We believe the Scriptures teach that God created man and woman as unique biological persons. God's plan for the union of marriage is that a biological man and a biological woman come together and covenant to be one flesh for life in a monogamous union that is spiritual, emotional, and physical. God's plan for sexual union is for its expression to be only within the bounds of this male and female marital union. We believe that a person's true identity is found and fulfilled in Christ alone and in a relationship with him. Therefore, a Christian is not to embrace identities, desires, and behaviours that are contrary to the expressed teaching of Scripture.

Genesis 1:27-28; 2:24; Matthew 19:5-6; Mark 10:6-9; Romans 1:26-27; 1 Corinthians 6:9

Concerning Salvation

We believe the Scriptures teach that the salvation of sinners is initiated by a loving God, wholly of grace, and accomplished only through the mediating work of the Son of God. It is upon the sole condition of faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. The sinner must be born again, being regenerated by the power of the Holy Spirit thereby receiving a new nature. The believer who has exercised personal faith in the Lord Jesus Christ is justified and in possession of a salvation which is eternally secure. A result of salvation is a life of obedience to God producing good works.

John 3:3-6, 16; 10:28, 29; 2 Corinthians 7:9, 10; Ephesians 2:8-10; Titus 3:8; Acts 13:39, Ephesians 2:8-10, 1 Peter 1:18-23, Romans 5:1,9; Romans 2:4; Romans 8:16, 28-29; 1 Timothy 2:5, 6; 2 Peter 1:4

Concerning the Church

We believe the Scriptures teach that the Church of Jesus Christ, distinct from Israel in the Old Testament, was inaugurated at Pentecost and must be considered in two aspects: the local church and "the church which is His body." This "body" is the entire company of believers in Christ. A local church is an organized assembly of baptized believers, associated by a commitment to the faith, fellowship, and proclamation of the gospel, and observing the ordinances of believer's baptism by immersion and the Lord's Supper. The Scripture identifies two offices in local churches. The terms overseer, elder, and pastor or shepherd all refer to the same office. The other is the office of deacon. The New Testament specifically assigns headship and authority in the local church to men.

Matthew 28:19, 20; 1 Corinthians 12:13; Titus 1:5-9; Philippians 1:1; Acts 1:5; 2:1-4; 10:44, 45; 11:15, 16; Ephesians 1:22, 23; Hebrews 12:23; 1 Timothy 2:11-14; 3:1-13

Concerning Baptism and the Lord's Supper

We believe the Scriptures teach that baptism is the immersion of a believer in water, in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, representing the believer's death to sin and his resurrection to a new life. We believe that the Lord's Supper is a commemoration of Christ's death to be observed by believers until His return and should be preceded by honest self-examination.

Matthew 28:19, 20; Acts 2:41-47; 8:36-39; Romans 6:3-5; 1 Corinthians 11:23-28

Concerning Angels

We believe that God created sinless, spirit beings called angels to worship and serve Him. Satan and some of the angels became proud and rebelled and were judged by God. Satan now rules these fallen angels, also called demons. They seek continually to frustrate the purposes of God and to cause mankind to sin against Him. These were conquered by Christ on the cross and are condemned to a future everlasting punishment.

2 Corinthians 4:4; 2 Corinthians 11:13-15; Ephesians 2:2; Revelation 12:9; Hebrews 1:14; 2:14; 12:22; Ezekiel 28:11-19; 2 Kings 6:16, 17; Isaiah 14:12-17; Colossians 2:15

Concerning Future Events

We believe in the coming of Christ in the air to take His saints to be with Him. This imminent event will be followed by the tribulation which will conclude with our Lord's second coming to the Earth to establish His glorious millennial Kingdom. Satan, after leading a final rebellion, will be cast into the lake of fire, along with death, hell, and the unrighteous dead.

1 Thessalonians 4:13-18; Zechariah 14:4-11; Revelation 20:1-15; 21:1

Concerning the Eternal State

We believe the Scriptures teach the bodily resurrection of the just and the unjust. The just, those who have been redeemed, will spend eternity in full enjoyment of God's presence. The unjust, those who through impenitence and unbelief refuse to accept God's offer of mercy, will spend eternity in everlasting, conscious punishment.

Psalms 16:11, Daniel 12:2, 3; 1 Corinthians 15:50-56; 2 Thessalonians 1:6-10; John 5:28, 29; Revelation 20:14, 15; Matthew 25:46

I have read the above Statement of Faith and believe that my doctrinal beliefs reflect the same as the above Statement of Faith.
